*"Even today, 9 out of 10 chefs in France are men. Due to a lack of opportunities, networks, training, decent working conditions and a persistent glass ceiling, many women who are passionate about cooking and have undeniable talent struggle to make their mark in this sector. At Marie Curry, we believe that the culinary skills passed down through generations of passionate women around the world are powerful drivers of integration, empowerment and social cohesion. Within the association, we are committed to the emergence of a more inclusive and eco-responsible cuisine through two main areas of focus: professional training and a supportive collective of committed professionals who inspire, support and dare!
Our goal? To highlight new role models: inspiring female chefs and cooks of all ages and backgrounds who are redefining the codes of gastronomy and paving the way for a more diverse and engaged cuisine."*

PARALLEL VISITS IN BORDEAUX

EN, FR - VISITS TO SSE ORGANISATIONS

Optional excursions are offered to participants that have registered in advance of the CIRIEC Research Conference in partnership with L'Alternative urbaine Bordeaux, a local solidarity tourism association. The organization offers off-the-beaten-path guided tours in so-called "working-class" or lesser-known neighborhoods of the Bordeaux metropolitan area. These walks are led by "urban guides" — people distanced from the labour market for whom this paid activity serves as a stepping stone toward stable and chosen employment.

The six excursions will take place on Wednesday, 29 October at 4:30 PM in different neighborhoods, running in parallel, and will last about an hour and a half. Each tour will include a visit to a Social and Solidarity Economy (SSE) organization located in the neighborhood explored. Registered participants will receive details of the meeting point a few days beforehand (please allow time for travel from the Palais de l'Atlantique). In case of cancellation, please inform the organizers so that other participants may attend.
